Signatures (Joint applications must be signed by all parties. Interest credited to account or paid by cheque if requested.)

Cheques must be made payable to the Anglican Savings and Development Fund.

Each depositor acknowledges that the Anglican Savings and Development Fund, Diocese of Newcastle ("ASDF"), is constituted by a 1979 Ordinance of the Synod of the Diocese of Newcastle. The Ordinance may be inspected at the Diocesan Office. Deposits may only be made on this application form. Deposits by individuals are invested collectively and after payment of interest to the depositor at the rates specified above and an administrative fee paid to the Diocese, the surplus is available for charitable purposes, as directed by ASDF's Board of Management. In addition to the Diocese, the following persons also receive a material benefit in connection with the ASDF: [Westpac Banking Corporation] which assists in administering and managing the assets of the ASDF and is paid management fees; and [BT Financial Group] which provides the ASDF with investment advice and is paid consulting fees.

The ASDF has the benefit of Banking Exemption No.1 of 2006 from the Australian Prudential Regulatory Authority ("APRA") and Class Order 02/184 (Charitable Investment Schemes) from the Australian Securities and Investment Commission ("ASIC") and is fully compliant with the conditions of these exemptions. Accordingly, each depositor acknowledges that:

(a) the ASDF is not subject to the normal requirement to have a disclosure document or Product Disclosure Statement and be registered or have a trust deed under the Act;

(b) the ASDF has not been examined or approved by ASIC;

(c) none of the Diocese, the ASDF or the ASDF's Board of Management is prudentially supervised by APRA;

(d) deposits into the ASDF do not obtain the benefit of the depositor protection provisions of the Banking Act 1959; and

(f) the ASDF is designed for depositors who wish to promote the charitable purposes of the Diocese and for whom the considerations of profit are not of primary relevance in their decision to deposit into the ASDF.

Please note interest rates are subject to change at any time.

For further information speak to your parish ASDF officer or phone the Anglican Diocese of Newcastle on 4926 3733.
