

Prayer and Study

The Parish Priest and Council should set aside some time to for prayer, study, reflection and conversation.

The Parish Council and other significant leaders should undertake the study A New Vision for Our Church. When the parish has completed the study it should meet with the Bishops or the MDO to reflect upon the vision. These meetings are normally organized by the Parish Priest.